Unknown Saved Two Lives.
Muskegon, Mich., July 19.—Edna Jackson, an Ann Arbor student here spending the vacation with her aunt, Mrs. R. MacDonald, at her summer cottage on Bear lake, narrowly escaped drowning. She was bathing with a 6-year-old boy. The child slipped into a hole twenty feet deep and called Miss Jackson, who swam to the child, who caught her and pulled her down under water. She sank and did not come up. A man who was passing in a launch dived and pulled both out.

Boy Drowned at Saginaw.
Saginaw, Mich., July 19.—Fred Moxley, 11 years old, was drowned in the Saginaw river. In company with several other boys he went in bathing and got beyond his depth. The boys with him were unable to give any assistance. The body was later recovered by the police. This is the first drowning here during the present bathing season. A widowed mother survives the boy.

PROVE IT ANYTIME

By the Evidence of Many People.

The daily evidence citizens right here at home supply is proof sufficient to satisfy the greatest skeptic. No better proof can be had. Here is a case. Read it:

Mrs. O. A. Wiley, of Orchard street, says: "I had kidney complaint off and on for two or three years, accompanied by backache of the severest kind, and sharp, darting pains through the kidneys. At night it was painful to move or turn, and I felt sore and lame in the morning. If I caught the least cold it settled in my back and I was much worse. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Hyman's & Rhodes' drug store, and was much pleased with their prompt and beneficial effect. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they do just what is claimed for them."
For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT

Packing Employes Desire to Settle Present Controversy.

BUT ONE POINT IN CONTENTION

Strikers Start a Small Packing House to Supply Meat to Union Butchers—Man Slugged Into Insensibility and Left on Street Car Track.

Chicago, July 19.—Another effort is to be made to settle the stock yards strike by arbitration. Mr. Donnelly will go over the history of the strike and will ask the packers if, in his judgment, it would not be better to concede the one point in contention, the taking back of all strikers, than to continue the strike. If this is not done the allied trades at the stock yards, numbering in all about 13,000 men, will be called out in an effort to bring the packers to terms.

Joseph Morton of the Stationary Firemen's union called on the packers and warned them that unless there was a speedy settlement of the strike his men would be compelled to quit work. While no definite answer was given to Mr. Morton by the packers, he was received by them in such a friendly manner that he left the conference with the belief that there was still a strong probability of peace. The determination of Mr. Donnelly once more to open negotiations with the packers was the result of the manner in which Mr. Morton was received by the packers.

A flank movement by the strikers has developed in the announcement by President Donnelly that in conjunction with William Sterling, vice-president of the Butcher Workmen's union, John Floorsch, secretary of the packing trades council, and Phillip Murphy, "champion butcher of the world," recently employed by Swift & Co., will start a small packing house where union butchers may secure supplies at prices which will enable strikers to purchase meat without contributing to the profits of the big packers. Cattle and hogs have already been brought, said President Donnelly, who also asserted that the plant had been secured and that operations would begin tomorrow.

Brutally Assaulted.
Slugged into insensibility by a dozen men and left for dead on the tracks of the Ashland avenue trolley line at West Forty-seventh street, Anton Bartusiak, an employee at the Swift packing plant, is lying at the county hospital. His injuries, in the opinion of Police Inspector Hunt, were inflicted by strike sympathizers and the wheels of a trolley car. The men, according to a witness who has talked to the police, set upon Bartusiak as he was going home from work. When they could not make him join the strikers they broke his skull, fractured his jaw, kicked him about the face, head and body and then threw him upon the car tracks.

The motorman of a car approaching not long afterward saw the body in time to stop the car, but not before the wheels had crushed Bartusiak's shoulder. The injured man was taken to the county hospital. He has not regained consciousness. Mrs. W. Clifford, attracted to her window by the sound of men fighting, saw the attack and declares she can identify several of Bartusiak's assailants.

INQUEST HELD.

Consul Stephens Identified Loomis' Remains.

Kingsbridge, Devonshire, Eng., July 19.—An inquest was held on the body of F. ent Loomis. Dr. Sidney Barker presided.
There was some delay in consequence of the official medical examination of the remains. This was conducted by two local doctors, whose testimony was to the effect that there was a contused wound below and behind the right ear, indicated by the extravasation of blood in the scalp and a rupture of the covering of the brain. There was also a general bruise, involving the scalp and integument of the brain on the left side above the ear. Both injuries, in the doctors' opinion, were caused before death.
Consul Stephens testified that he had seen the body and from information supplied to him officially, he hesitatingly identified it as that of Loomis, who was acting as a special messenger for the American government, carrying important dispatches from the government at Washington to the embassy at Paris.

Joseph C. Stephens, American consul at Plymouth, wires that the body is fairly preserved, especially about the top and back of the head, considering the time it has been in the water.

GLYCERINE EXPLOSION.

Man and Team of Horses Blown to Atoms in Ohio.

Lima, O., July 19.—William H. Seigel, aged 30, together with his team of horses and a wagon, were blown to atoms by an explosion of glycerine. Only pieces of flesh were found of the man and beasts, while a big blot marks the spot where the explosion occurred. Seigel was unloading "empties" when the explosion occurred, having just returned from "shooting" a well.

These Men Were Lucky.

Lansing, Mich., July 19.—John P. Lemus and Webster Cornish had a wonderfully fortunate experience. They started to drive to River Junction. When they reached the Cedar street crossing of the Grand Trunk the fast westbound freight train was passing and the gates were down. The men evidently drove too close to the gate, for their horse became frightened, jumped over the gate, dragged the buggy after him, and ran into the train. The entire outfit was dragged for some distance and the horse was so badly injured that he had to be killed. All that was left intact of the buggy was the seat. The men escaped with a few bruises.

Jackson, Mich., July 19.—Fred Dutcher was driving along the street when his horse collided with a street car. The man was thrown to the ground and badly bruised, but his injuries are not serious. The horse was so badly injured that it had to be shot.

Shippers Gain Their Point.

Chicago, July 19.—Shippers, according to the Record-Herald, have won a victory over the railroads in relation to the uniform bill of lading. While it has not yet been generally promulgated, officers of the eastern roads have agreed to waive the signature feature of the new bill, which was the bone of contention between transportation companies and shippers.
